

Judges Bio:

Mark T. Wells – Tampa, Fl. Ensemble Visual

Mark T. Wells has a broad visual background encompassing theater, dance, color guard/marching band and design arts. With a bachelor of arts in organizational communication, Mark's design and communication background balances his adjudication skills. He is a Winter Guard International adjudicator and has been an instructor and consultant for several winter guard WGI medalists and marching band BOA finalists throughout the Midwest. Mark was instrumental in continued and enhanced adjudicator education for several Midwest winter guard and marching band circuits. He is the director of Marching Images, a business providing visual design, drill/staging and color guard services for marching bands, winter guards and winter percussion groups. His clients include groups in the Midwest and West Coast.
